“Sometimes words are so inadequate no matter how eloquent,
sophisticated or elaborate they may be.

The clothes were way more than I anticipated and greatly appreciated, but they were not the gift...

“After literally living on the streets, filthy and restless,
being looked down upon because of my appearance
I felt at times less than human.

“Thank you for how you received me, how you treated me,
spoke to me, for how you served me and embraced me.

“Your human touch and acceptance was healing balm to my most innermost hurts.

“Thank you!!!”

A Note from Our Founder/Executive Director

Dear Friends,

It was a fantastic 2006! Landmarks were hit this year: 3,462 clients were served and, for the first time in the organization's history, we reached $1 million in revenue and more than $3 million in-kind. Working Wardrobes is now a $4 million organization! We did our best to be excellent stewards of your gifts to us, and our 2006 audit shows that 91 cents of every dollar went directly to program services!

For 16 years, I have watched this organization grow and every step of the way I can point to a significant relationship that helped us achieve our milestones. Whether it was a partnership with...

- The Men's Wearhouse who helps us address the needs of at-risk men;
- Cookie Lee Jewelry who gives our women that bit of sparkle and confidence;
- Volunteers like Suzie Hastings who brings her connections within GE Money to work with us;
- Raphael Natale who motivates the men during each Day of Self-Esteem;
- Our amazing National Charity League volunteers who support every event we host;

...each relationship has magnified the ways we are able to help adults in crises achieve success, reclaim their dignity and become self-sufficient. And there are literally thousands and thousands of other volunteers and donors who impact our efforts, too many to mention here. We acknowledge and appreciate every one!

While we continue to reach out to thousands of men and women in our own backyard, we recognize there are many other communities that struggle without an organization like Working Wardrobes to meet the needs of their at-risk population. In 2007 we will begin expanding to new markets by leveraging our valuable relationships, and those we have yet to make. Through a proven track record of outstanding client service, amazing volunteer and donor connections, and a very solid business plan rooted in social enterprise, Working Wardrobes has demonstrated that it is more than a worthy charitable organization—it is a solid choice for corporate investment and partnership.

With sights set high, we will continue to keep client success foremost in our minds, acknowledging that much of our progress will come from leveraging existing and new relationships. Thank you for being a significant part of our work.

With warm regards,

Jerri Rosen

About Working Wardrobes

Working Wardrobes is the nation's premiere nonprofit organization helping men and women in crises re-enter the workforce through wardrobing and career development.

Since 1990, Working Wardrobes has served more than 30,000 adults. We work with 60 social service agencies throughout Orange County, Los Angeles and the Inland Empire; these programs include domestic violence shelters, Welfare to Work programs, drug addiction recovery centers and the Department of Rehabilitation.

Mirroring our clients' commitment to self-sufficiency, Working Wardrobes operates three social enterprises, providing 55% of the organization's overall operating budget.

To learn more about Working Wardrobes, please visit www.workingwardrobes.org.

Mission

Working Wardrobes, an independent, nonprofit organization, helps men and women in crises re-enter the workforce through wardrobing and career development.

Vision

Working Wardrobes positively impacts individuals, businesses and communities by moving men and women from crisis to self-sufficiency.

Beliefs

We believe in...

- Serving our clients, volunteers and donors with dignity and respect;

- Building strategic partnerships; and
- Enhancing Working Wardrobes' financial stability through social enterprise.

Working Wardrobes
Thrift Shop

The Hanger

Belief in Action: Social Enterprises

Working Wardrobes is proactive in funding our programs through social enterprises: the Wardrobing Centers, The Hanger (an upscale resale boutique) and Working Wardrobes Thrift Shop. Comprising 55% of the 2006 budget, these three businesses play a significant role in our ability to provide services to nearly 3,500 men and women in crises.

100% of the proceeds from The Hanger, an upscale resale boutique in Tustin, CA and the Working Wardrobes Thrift Shop in Anaheim, CA directly benefit the clients we serve.

Each year we have continued to see an increase in profitability from both shops, due to strategic and consistent marketing practices, dedicated staff and volunteers, hard-to-beat prices, and unparalleled merchandise. Seven new partner organizations and a record number of clients served grew profits from the Wardrobing Centers by 21%.

Retail Training Program

Offering more than great merchandise and huge savings, Working Wardrobes' retail shops provide a forum for on-the-job retail training to program participants. Survivors of domestic violence, recovering addicts and Welfare to Work participants are able to learn valuable merchandising, customer service and general retail skills in a real-world environment. In 2006, more than 60 women participated in the retail training programs.

A comprehensive Retail Training curriculum is currently in development with an expected roll-out in 4th Quarter 2007.

A Phoenix House client is made over in Working Wardrobes' salon during a Success Event.

Wardrobing Centers

Working one-on-one with trained, volunteer Personal Shoppers, nearly 2,000 clients (55% of the clients served in 2006) received a professional “working wardrobe” and learned how to enhance their personal and professional image. Each client also received a gift bag filled with toiletries, and gift certificates for hair cuts and cosmetics.

Success Events

Success Events, concentrated Days of Self-Esteem hosted by corporate sponsors and held at the Fountain Valley Center, provided an additional 57 clients from four social service programs with wardrobing, hair and cosmetic makeovers, and “Power of Your Image” workshops. Just as with our signature Days of Self-Esteem, Success Events provide a transformative experience for the participants, instilling confidence, building self-esteem and empowering them to succeed in their interviews.

Success Coaches

Success Coaches are Human Resource-trained professionals committed to helping transform Working Wardrobes' clients from the inside out. Partnerships with the National Human Resource Association (NHRA) and the American Society for Training & Development (ASTD) play a critical role in the recruitment of Success Coaches and curriculum development.

Working with volunteer Success Coaches, clients acquire the skills and knowledge they need to succeed in the interview process and get a job. The cornerstone of their respective Days of Self-Esteem, more than 150 men and women participated in the "First Steps to Career Success" workshops in 2006.

This year, the "First Steps" curriculum received a comprehensive update, standardizing the material and making it even more relevant and applicable to today's job seeker.

“All I knew of Working Wardrobes was that they gave out free clothes...
Then they told me that I had to go through 6 weeks of classes.

“I cannot even begin to tell you how much knowledge
I gained from these classes;
everything from how to write a resume, interviewing skills, how to dress for an interview, and how to fill in gaps in your resume, and let me tell you—
I had some serious gaps in my resume!

“By the end of the whole experience I had the skills it takes to get a job, which I did!

“This experience helped me to feel good about myself when I couldn’t get that from within.”

Cinderellas for Life

Few events in a young lady's life are as eagerly anticipated as the high school prom. Unfortunately, for many teens in economic need, the ability to afford a prom dress is more a dream than a reality.

Working Wardrobes' Cinderellas for Life helps make these dreams come true, preparing the ladies for their prom...and their future. In addition to receiving a beautiful dress and coordinating accessories, participants attended workshops on self-esteem, etiquette and goal setting.

During the 2006 Cinderellas for Life, 405 young ladies saw their dreams come true, thanks to the assistance of more than 400 volunteers.

The remaining 1,500 dresses were taken to Camp Pendleton in Oceanside, providing dresses for women Marines and military wives attending the U.S. Marine Corps Ball.

Days of Self-Esteem

Each year, Days of Self-Esteem are held separately for men and women. Nearly 250 adults in crises were assisted during the 2006 Days of Self-Esteem, representing 7% of the total clients served.

Transforming participants from the inside out, Days of Self-Esteem are the signature events of Working Wardrobes. For many participants who have spent years in abusive situations, battling drug or alcohol addiction, incarceration or homelessness, the caring, supportive and encouraging words from staff and volunteers are more valuable than the clothing they receive.

As self-esteem and dignity are restored, the suits are worn a little taller and accessorized with smiles that seem to grow throughout the day.

Each program participant is provided with professional wardrobing and personal grooming services, self-esteem workshops by renowned speakers, and access to a job fair featuring corporate partners interested in hiring qualified candidates. In order to participate in the Day of Self-Esteem, clients are required to complete the six-session “First Steps to Career Success” workshop series.

2007 Sneak Peek:

Career Development Center!

Launched May 1, 2007 the Career Development Center is helping qualified job seekers become more successful in the job search and in their career.

The following services are now being provided by a full-time Training Manager:

- Online and personal career assessment tools
- Computers for online job searches and resume posting
- A Training Manager to discuss skills assessment and job leads

“I still remember arriving, sitting on a bench holding my appointment card.

My hair was long and unstyled; my clothes were old and worn.

But I had hope, I was here.

“I left that day feeling so excited.

All these people telling me I looked wonderful couldn't be wrong.

You showed me there is another life out there.

A life with nice people, unguarded laughter, decent conversation, and hope.

This must be what Cinderella felt when the Fairy Godmother stepped into her life.

“Each time I come back to volunteer, my mind's eye sees the surroundings like it did when I was a guest. I re-live, vicariously through the new guests, feelings of affirmation, joy, excitement and wonderment. Now I am a Fairy Godmother and maybe she, like myself, was once a Cinderella and revels in the joy of watching another Cinderella merge from hopelessness to hope.”

Volunteers: The Heart & Soul of Working Wardrobes!

Whether helping sort clothes in the donation center, assisting in our retail outlets, supporting the staff administratively, personal shopping during a Day of Self-Esteem, serving on our Board of Directors, as a Designing Women Guild member or a Corporate/ Civic Advocate, our volunteers are the best!

In 2006, 1,172 volunteers donated 7,793 hours! A recent study identified the value of a volunteer hour to be $18.04. That's more than $140,586.00 worth of volunteer service (although to Working Wardrobes, it remains priceless)!

To all our volunteers, far too many to mention by name, we thank you!

A GUILD IN SUPPORT OF WORKING WARDROBES

One of the most significant additions in 2006 was Designing Women, an energetic, creative women's Guild in support of Working Wardrobes.

The Designing Women bring together a dynamic group who organize fundraising events (including the Baubles, Bangles & Bags Tea and Black Tie & Tennies Gala), advocate on behalf of Working Wardrobes and build awareness in the community.

With an early 2007 membership of more than 30 members, the Guild is expanding its events to include monthly meetings with fascinating speakers.

Starting with just four women, the Designing Women Guild quickly grew to 30 members and achieved spectacular results in 2006! We hosted two fundraising events: The Old Bags Tea and the Black Tie & Tennies Gala. Both events were tremendous successes and helped spread awareness in the community about Working Wardrobes and Designing Women.

As our membership grew, we began attracting a number of members from the South Bay. It was an easy decision to use their talents and energy in their backyard and start a second guild. Already the Designing Women, South Bay has 30 members and is growing weekly! The new Designing Women will continue spreading awareness of Working Wardrobes and support the opening of their own The Hanger resale boutique.

The Guilds are looking forward to an exciting 2007. It's going to be a great year and we hope you will join us at our events. And please remember, membership is open and the rewards are many!

Sincerely,

Christy

Baubles, Bangles & Bags Tea

Known in 2006 as “Old Bags,” the inaugural fundraiser hosted by the Designing Women Guild was an overwhelming success!

The High Tea High Fashion spring event was one-of-a-kind. Four hundred well-dressed ladies spent the afternoon shopping, enjoying a delicious high tea and supporting Working Wardrobes. More than 1,000 gently loved handbags (“Old Bags”) were collected to support the female clientele served by Working Wardrobes.

The event grossed $85,000 and the Designing Women have their sights set even higher in 2007. Congratulations!

A Note from Our Board Chair

Dear Stakeholders,

Thank you for your continued support! Your investments and contributions are genuinely making a difference in the lives of clients we serve and we can all be extremely proud of our accomplishments in 2006!

Throughout our 17-year existence, we have grown, developed and matured. Now we have reached an especially exciting time! Working Wardrobes will be increasing the number of people we impact with our unique delivery of services, and are diligently exploring expansion opportunities in new markets. We have identified numerous communities throughout California where Working Wardrobes could make a profound impact in the lives men and women in crises trying to re-enter the workforce!

While pursuing the agenda of expansion, we remain dedicated to providing exceptional programs within the existing communities we serve. One way we are accomplishing this is through the 2007 launch of our Career Development Center which focuses on career assessments, job and life skills training, and career referrals.

On behalf of the entire Board of Directors, I wish to give a million thanks to our special volunteers, staff, donors, partners and supporters. We wholeheartedly applaud your commitment to achieving our goals during this period of expansion and growth.

Sincerely,

Marilen

Clothing Donors

This year we have been celebrating the benchmark of surpassing the $1 million mark. However, when the generosity of our clothing donors are factored in, Working Wardrobes becomes a $4 million organization! In 2006, a total of 1,718 donors donated nearly $3 million worth of professional clothing, accessories, toiletries, furniture and household items. This is a huge testament to the generosity and support of the community, and we thank you! Not only did your contributions help professionally dress our clients on their way to a job interview, but also provided merchandise for The Hanger and Thrift Shop, proceeds of which directly support Working Wardrobes.

Working Wardrobes for a New Start

We have audited the statements of financial position of Working Wardrobes for a New Start as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the organization's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Working Wardrobes for a New Start as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and the changes in net assets, functional expenses and their cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

WorkingWardrobes.org

This was a year of make-overs, and the online image of Working Wardrobes was no exception. Employing the technical webmastering of Meredith Bischoff and made possible by a grant from The Irvine Health Foundation, the website and monthly Hot News e-newsletter were completely overhauled, providing contemporary, clean new designs, easy to navigate format and a wealth of information. These changes mirror the updates that Working Wardrobes' collateral material have received, thanks to the creative genius of Bonnie Toth!
