

2007 Cinderellas For Life Fact Sheet

WHAT: An exciting event with workshops and prom dress shopping for foster youth and young women in economic need to prepare them for that special prom experience.

- Making the Right Choices.....
 - For Your Education~~~~~Guest speaker
 - For Your Future~~~~~ Treasure mapping workshop
 - At the Table~~~~~Etiquette workshop
 - For Your Prom Dreams~~~~~Dress and accessory selection

WHEN: March 10, 2007
Volunteer hours:
8:00 am - 2:00 pm - serving invited guests from partner agencies and area high schools
2:00 pm -4:00 pm - pack up teams

WHO: 500 young women in economic need throughout Orange County
Collaborative partners: Garden Grove Unified School District, Orangewood Children's Foundation, and Working Wardrobes

WHY: There is nothing to compare to the excitement of teens as they approach their prom night. To be unable to attend because finances cannot be stretched to buy a dress puts young teens in a most vulnerable position. Our event enables young women in economic need to attend exciting, life transforming workshops and shop for the prom dress of their dreams.

WHERE: Delhi Community Center,
505 E. Central Avenue, Santa Ana, CA 92707

HOW CAN I HELP? LOTS OF WAYS!

- Host a prom dress and accessory drive at your high school, company, sorority, etc. and deliver the dresses and accessories between Jan 1st - February 28th to the Working Wardrobes Donation Center
- Volunteer at the Working Wardrobes Donation Center: Monday - Saturday 9:00 am - 2:00 pm
- Volunteer to help set up for the event on Tuesday, March 9th, 9:00 am - 4:00 pm
- Volunteer to work the prom dress event on March 10th; sign-up at www.workingwardrobes.org