

Corporate Social Responsibility Day: Give Back to Your Community

Is your company looking to enhance or build your CSR program?

We invite you to join us for a revitalizing CSR Day! Whether you are looking to engage your employees in meaningful team building, professional development or volunteer service, Working Wardrobes can help! We've packaged active volunteer projects with guest speakers for "brown bag" lunch presentations that will leave your team energized and closer than ever!

Here are some of the benefits your team will receive:

- Engage employees
- Develop personal & professional leadership skills
- Help local families & support your community
- Build team morale
- Create lasting partnerships

It's easy! 1. Select the day you and your team wish to visit.

2. Pick a shift that works best for your team:
